

ANGELA R. HANLIN, M.A.

EXPERTISE Elementary teacher with 10+ years classroom experience. Specializations include: RTI, classroom and behavior management, differentiating instruction.

ACADEMIC M. A., Elementary Administration, William Woods University, 2004

BACKGROUND B. S., Elementary Education, Southeast Missouri State University, 1995

WORK HISTORY

2002-Present, Elementary Teacher

New Madrid County R-1 School District, Matthews, MO

- Taught grades 3-5.
- RTI coordinator for second grade
- MO Spirit Coordinator for School-wide Prevention Program
- Work with fellow teachers to plan and implement new classroom strategies
- Math/Science Club sponsor
- Analyze Crystal Reports/MAP Data every year with Curriculum Director
- Wrote the current Science Curriculum for Fifth grade
- Assisted writing the Communication Arts Curriculum for Fifth grade
- Mentored beginning teachers
- Cooperating teacher for Block students
- Created the Eagle's Landing Cafe (Behavior incentive)
- Created the MAP BOWL-MAP Incentive program for grades 3-5

1999-1996, Elementary Teacher

Sikeston Public Schools, Sikeston, MO

- Taught third grade
- Student Council Developer/Sponsor
- Member of Math/Communication Arts planning team
- Helped plan and implement school-wide behavior program
- Had weekly grade level planning meetings with fellow third grade teachers

Professional Associations

- Delta Kappa Gamma Educational Sorority (Past President)
- CTA (former Treasurer, Reporter, and Building Representative)
- MSTA
- Who's Who of American Educators